Preparing Your Landscape For Fall

Most of us enjoy fall gardening but even the dedicated gardeners sometimes tire this time of year. Here's a few hints to make fall and winter easier.

- Fall is perhaps the most important time of the year to prepare your yard and plants for the next growing season. It is time to cut back fading stalks, leaves, weeds and clean up the garden before winter. Removing spent foliage and decomposing plant material can aid in the prevention of pests and plant disease being held over into the next growing season.

- Fall is also the season when weeds go to seed, so removal of them can help to lesson the population of weeds in the spring.

- If you do not have time to pull up troublesome weeds and plants, at least try to clip off the heads before they drop their seeds on the ground. Dispose of the seeds in a trash pile, not a compost heap. Another method of reducing the weed population on your flower beds is to place a sheet of black plastic over it during the winter and weigh it down with rocks or bricks.

- Fall is a good time to divide perennials for the spring season. Because the plants are going into dormancy, they won't be shocked by cutting or transplanting in the fall. Spring blooming bulbs should be planted in the fall. Remember to do it before the ground freezes or they will not do well in the spring.

Top Interior Design Trends of 2005

Staying on top of design trends can be tough, as they quickly fall in and out of favor. Still, knowing the trends is crucial to creating standout interiorscape looks for commercial or residential spaces.

Boost your style IQ and take note of these top looks of the year.

- A gradual move away from minimalist style toward more opulent, old-Hollywood glamour. Now, the minimalist office with a sleek leather sofa will call for touches like a cashmere throw or silk pillows.

- A high-fashion color palette. Raspberry, grass green and indigo blues rule, as do sage and gold, which harmonize with popular earthy looks.

In general, design and clothing colors will continue to mimic each other, with increasingly uncommon color combinations.

- Layering of textures. From lighting to fabrics to carpeting, textures are in, but they must never conflict.

- Increased use of glass as an accessory. Whether crystal, etched, colored or plain, glass vases and accessories will assume prominent roles.

In addition to these trends, another key development is increased awareness of "green" design, or use of products that are recycled and cause minimal environmental harm. Of course, live green foliage complements this design philosophy, which is gaining momentum.

Fertilize Your Lawn In The Fall

September is an excellent time to improve your lawn with a fertilizer application. Fertilizing helps the plant manufacture food for itself, which is stored in the roots and used during the winter months. The recommended rate of fertilizer in September is 1 to 1.5 pounds of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet of lawn.

By doing some simple math, you can figure out how many pounds of nitrogen are in a bag of fertilizer and how many square feet of lawn that bag can cover. If you have a forty pound bag of a 25-10-12 fertilizer, you have a bag that contains 25 percent nitrogen, 10 percent phosphorus, and 12 percent potassium by weight. Translated to pounds, the bag contains 10 pounds of phosphorus and 4.8 pounds of potassium.

Remember, the recommended rate is 1 to 1.5 pounds of nitrogen per 100 square feet of lawn. By dividing the 10 pounds of nitrogen in the bag by 1, you'll see the bag will fertilize 10,000 square feet of lawn. If you choose to fertilize at the higher 1.5 pound rate, the bag will treat about 6,500 square feet of turf.

Slow release products are suggested to avoid the burst of growth associated with the cheaper, faster release nitrogen products. Typically a good slow-release product may state on the label that it is 30 percent to 50 percent water insoluble nitrogen.

Household Tips To Make Your Life Easier...

Need to get rid of kitchen odors?

Fill a jar with a couple of vanilla beans and keep the lid off. The vanilla odor will permeate the air! Also, try baking some orange peels in the oven at 350 degrees. Bake for about 15 min. and you'll notice a nice aroma.

Dull coffee grinder?

Grind a cup of uncooked rice. It will clean the grinder and sharpen the blades.

Cleaning windows?

Wipe the outside of the pane with vertical strokes and the inside with horizontal strokes. If any streaks appear it will be easier to tell which side they are on.

Grease stain on your carpet?

Shake some cornstarch over the grease stain and let it set overnight or at least 8 hours. Then vacuum and you will see marvelous results.

Baby wipes?

They're not just for babies! They are miracle-workers on carpet and clothing stains. From motor oil to blood, they remove almost anything!

Happy Cleaning!

ASK IRIS!

Dear Iris,

I pulled out my annual plants, now my yard looks bare and all green. Any suggestions?

Signed, Am I-Late in Asking

Dear Am I,

Not at all. You can still plant for fall color now. With October frost in sight, trees produce less and less chlorophyll, allowing the yellow, red, and orange pigments to show through in leaves. Fall color accents in gardens are provided by: Dwarf Fothergilla, Clethra alnifolia, Hydrangea Querafolia, Serviceberry, Viburnums, Red & Gold Barberry, Virginia Sweetspire and Burning Bush.

For larger tree color, (yellow) Birch varieties, Poplar and some Maples; (red) Maples and Dogwoods; (brown & golden bronze tones) Oaks and Hickories; (purple) Smoketree & Japanese Maple. Also, let medium and tall grasses remain unpruned for a fall show of tan and gold and to protect the growing crown at the base during the winter cold months.

Fall planting provides cooler soil and air temperatures which reduces transplant stress. You can plant until the ground freezes, but allow time for younger trees' roots to establish.

Signed, Iris

Appealing Apple Cup

This project is easy enough for children to handle after an adult uses a knife to hollow out a bowl inside the apple. Insert four nails evenly spaced about halfway down the side, leaving the nailheads out about 1/4" from the skin. Mix birdseed with enough peanut butter to evenly coat the seeds. Spoon the mixture into the apple cup. Cut four equal lengths of raffia (about 14"-16" long) and attach one string to each nail. tie the ends together at the top to hang from a tree or hook.

Home Tip...

Carpet Dents?

You've moved the furniture, but the carpet "remembers" the old arrangement. No problem: Leave an ice cube in each dent overnight. By morning, most of the fibers will be fluffed up and all you'll have to do is blot them with a cloth and gently comb the stragglers back in place.
